The beautiful story for children 10 and up of how Our Lady appeared to young St. Catherine Laboure shortly after she entered the Daughters of Charity in Paris and through her gave the world the Miraculous Medal.

I love this book because it really shows what the saints life was like.I also think that the book is amazing how it words are so deeply detailed.I also love the story! it made me cry a little bit. but I recommend that this is the perfect book for children like me(I'm only 11)that are in any type of religious schools.thank you for reading this post and bye!!!!

Purchased for our daughter's home school program. Excellent--she loves it and it fulfills our needs.

This book tells the basic story of how the Miraculous Medal came into being. An easy read. Good for anyone who doesn't know the story.

Very interesting true story for children to read for themselves or to be read to. Highly recommended.

Delightful and well written as always by Ms. Windeatt - and love the drawings - one for each chapter. This is not for the youngest due to written it seems for grades 4 and up.

Beautiful story for all ages. I'm visiting the chapel of the Miraculous Medal and this prepared us for it. Can't wait to see it now.

Great book!
