Customer Reviews

This book takes the reader page by page through a maze. You do the maze with your finger, following a mouse from location to location through holes in the pages. My 6 year old son loves it. Also, so you are not confused, this is not a "maze" book where you do the mazes with a pencil- it is a book where you trace a path and move to the next page based on what you traced the previous page. You can go back/forward in the book.
