Customer Reviews

This is a silly story that my son enjoys. My son is interested in crocodilians and loves the whole idea. Zack's uncle from the everglades sends him a key-chain alligator and she ends up growing into a real alligator when you add water. They get into a decent amount of mischief together and then head home for supper. All-in-all my opinion is that Zack's Alligator is a cute kid's story.

My son enjoys reading and liked the idea of following a favorite character through other stories, I believe Zak's Aligator has three books? Very fun, if my kid likes it its okay by me.

This is another excellent book in this series. Again, my two sons love reading this series and request more books from it with every book that they complete. Thank you for such a great series!

This is a great book if you read Zach's alligator it goes with the story line. I highly suggest you buy both.

Book 2 is just as well received as Book 1. Kids really like it!!

very cute story. I wish there were more books in this series.
