Our 2 1/2 year old twins are obsessed with all things Frozen! I had seen this sticker book awhile ago and purchased it, thinking we could use it when they were a little older and could understand how fun sticker books can be. It was a rainy day yesterday and even though they are still younger than the target age range, I thought we could give it a shot and see how they did with it. As it turns out, they loved the book and, with my help, they had a blast and kept saying, "More! More!". I definitely think that older children would benefit more from this sticker book since they can probably read everything themselves and will know how to place the stickers on the pages but my toddlers had a lot of fun nonetheless. There are 4 themes in the book: Princess Anna, Princess Elsa, Warm Friends, and True Love. Each set of pages contains several outlines where the stickers go, along with a short description of the sticker that accompanies it and part of the story from the movie. This book makes it easy for children to match the stickers not only because of the shape of the sticker but also the caption (i.e. Elsa's Secret, Sisterly Bond) matches the sticker on the sticker pages. The stickers that match the outlines are also boldfaced so they stand out a bit more from the other stickers on the pages. The stickers are reusable but if you press them down really well onto the glossy pages like we did, it might be hard to pull them back off without tearing them. There are also lots of other stickers that you can use throughout the book or for other books. I even took a brand-new sticker and tested it on our wall, table, and counter and they don't stick very well to those surfaces which is great knowing that I won't have to scrub sticker residue off the walls!
