My 7 yr old daughter has dyslexia so reading is a real challenge for her. This is a GREAT series for girls, especially struggling readers. It helps build their reading confidence because, like their classmates, they are reading a "chapter book" but the chapters are short and it is easy to read. I told her 2nd grade teacher about this series because she was not familiar with it, and plan to purchase it for their classroom.

Stumbled upon this series by accident. My daughter (in 1st grade) was worried that they were too difficult for her (she had never read a chapter book by herself before). She had read book 1 by the end of 1st grade and I could hardly keep up with her as fast as she was finishing them. She's read all the books multiple times and still loves them (in 3rd grade). Cute stories with good lessons.

I want to be a ballerina and wear a leotard like posey. Jane, age 4
Cute story, nice moral, no sassy characters.

Such a cute series. Very easy read for my first grade daughter. Only about 50-60 pages. We will buy more!

My 7 year old grand daughter loves all this books. She is in first grade too.

The budding ballerina in the family loved this book.

My granddaughter loves this book!

My 5 year old loves these books!
