Reptiles (Insiders)

Synopsis

Reptiles is packed with high-quality images and diagrams on everything from where reptiles live to how they hunt their prey and how they defend themselves from predators. What are turtles shells made of? How do lizards scare enemies? How can snakes "see" in the dark? Reptiles, a new book in the visually stunning, groundbreaking INSIDERS series, answers all these questions and more. Packed with high quality images and diagrams on everything from where reptiles live to how they hunt their prey and how they defend themselves from predators. Full-energy spreads approach the topics through unique and unexpected angles, taking the reader inside the action. Engaging and fun to read, this series will appeal to know-it-all kids and reluctant readers alike.

Customer Reviews

My son (currently 9yo) grabbed this out from our local library and I thought, "Oh great. Another book about reptiles (or dinos or other scary beasties)." But this one took my breath away. Truly a gorgeous presentation. I have to say I didn't read it for content (neither did he) and it's going back to the library now, but we will be checking this series out again and maybe buying them as gifts for boys interested in this sort of thing.
