Customer Reviews

This book is adorable, my baby loves it...and the reason I am not giving this book all five stars is because they have a picture of a CHIMPANZEE but the book calls it a MONKEY. The chimp is part of the ape family, all five species in the ape family do not have tails. A monkey is not an ape and thus, always has a tail. I realize it's a book intended for a baby, but it's never too early to learn some basic scientific facts. The editor is asleep at the wheel.

This quickly became a instant favorite for my 11 month old twins. The book is very simple. The pictures are great. They love to interact with the pages. I have memorized the book so as they hold and turn pages I am reciting the words. My twins are teething so since it is cardboard it has teeth marks and bites. If there is a more indistructable medium than cardboard I would suggest that baby books be made of that. Arrived on time, is as decribed, would order from seller again.

I own 4 of these books. my child LOVES them - I started with "Zoo's Who?" and "Puppy Love?" and decided to get a couple more from . I didn't realize this version is half the size of the books I already own. Good for travelling I guess.

I bought this for my son to bring in his diaper bag to church. I needed more books that he could enjoy and help him sit quietly. My son is 13 months old. He likes this book but I think all the pages are very similar. Many, if not all the pages feel the same, that is all the animals are furry, so every page has some sort of fur, just different colors of fur. Very boring in my opinion. I wish they had animals with scales or something. For the price, I suppose it's not bad. It's small so it's easy to transport and easy for little hands to grab/hold.

This is a great touch & feel baby book. My baby has loved it. It is small enough to easily pack in the diaper bag, small enough for her to handle easily as well. The pictures are cute. She especially loves the tiger & dog pages.

This book is overall very good. My baby loves the pictures And he also likes feeling the pictures while I read it to him. We have all the touch and feel baby books from Roger Priddy. They have become his favorite books.

Hands down my baby's favorite book ever! He loves feeling the textures and even looking at the pictures on his own. I've read it to him so many times I have it memorized. I bought a second one and sought out more books from this author he has enjoyed this book so much! Can't say enough good things about it.

Best baby book buy! I bought this when my son was 4 months, he's now 10 months and brings me this book to read. Fits well in his hands. I don't like the rhyming of the "goslings" page, but I made up my own rhyme.
