We love Totoro the movie and this book has great stills from the film. The kids really get excited to relive the story and see their favorite characters. This installment is not the whole story, but the final chapter.

This is my son's favorite movie (full disclosure - he's 3 and the only other movies he has seen is Pooh and Mary Poppins). This is great to read when I am trying to limit screen time because it literally has every word said in the movie, in comic format - so he can still get his Totoro fix. Book 4/4 is his favorite because it has the cat bus in it the most - his favorite "character," other than Mei. This book reads right to left, as it is simply a translation of the Japanese manga (I also own book 1/4 in Japanese). The "talk bubbles" are in english, but the graphic sound effects (part of the pictures, really) are still in Japanese. Doesn't bother me a bit but if you are curious (and don't read Nihongo), look up the Hiragana online.

My Neighbor Totoro is great! It is a very humorous story, filled with many cute characters! The totoro series would be great for anyone looking for something to read, or just for laughs. It is truly a magical journey in every page.

Daughter loves it!
