Customer Reviews

I've been using the Quilt Art Calendar as my main appointments calendar for some time now. The photography is always stunning and the descriptions of how the quilts came to be are interesting. It's a little large to fit in a purse, but that's not how I use it. I have it on my desk open to the current week. There is plenty of room to write in several activities on each day, if necessary.

I love these calendars. I purchase one every year. The space for a day has enough room to write about your day and room for reminders. Each week features a quilt that usually has not been seen in magazines. There is an article about the quilt and its maker. I have saved the calendars since 1998. They are worth the purchase price.

I love this calendar. I get one every year and I save them. They are like quilt books. The paper is not as heavy as it used to be but I appreciate that the price has remained very reasonable.
