Customer Reviews

NOT REUSABLE!!!!!! To use as regular stickers they are fine but by no means are these stickers reusable. Usually reusable stickers are sturdier and don't have glue but these are just regular paper stickers with glue. So disappointing we have the Melissa and Doug reusable stickers and they are great.

400 is a little miss leading (it should be more like 100) there are multiple stickers with the same images just different sizes. Still they are beautiful and reasonably good sized, so I guess I can't complain.

I purchased these for my four year old son and he loves Dinosaurs, so it was no wonder that when these came in the mail he has had such a excellent joy with these. These are used as a tool for praising him for doing an excellent job and they work perfect for that. There are a lot of stickers, so this book will last quite a while before a new one be needed. The stickers do peel off easily if needed, when placed on paper. I use the coloured construction paper that is avalabile at places like Hobby Lobby so he can put the stickers on it and if the stickers need to be removed to place them in a different location, it is possible.If your child loves stickers, especially dinosaur, they will love this.

Lots of great stickers! My 3 y/o son loves the scenery at the front and back page where you can put and remove stickers. There's land, water and flying dinosaurs, fossils, foot prints, few plants and egg stickers. Lots of fun!

My second to oldest son is obsessed with dinosaurs. He has nearly everything dino and gets anything he comes across that he doesn't have. So when he wanted a new sticker book, this one happened to be one he had never had. So I of course had to get it. Upon arrival we were pleased with it. This is a very nice sticker book and exactly what I was expecting. Though I didn't know before arrival, these are reuseable, depending on what they are stuck to. Of course he stuck them to any and everything and we were able to move them with no problem. These stickers are very detailed and he loved every single one of them. I liked that there was a nice selection of stickers. You didn't have 100 of the same thing. The outside of the book is pretty thick, unlike others, and keep the stickers from getting torn, which I loved. Though I didn't actually sit and count them there is definitely at least 400 stickers in here and he has yet to use them all. I'm so glad I found this book for him. I would recommend it to others. I have no doubt that it would last him a while, if he'd let it.

Stickers do not come off easily and aren't really able to be removed and reused. My 3 year old grandson looses interest quickly because the stickers don't handle well. My 5 year old granddaughter doesn't like them much more.

My children LOVE these dinosaur stickers. It was really neat that the different pages had different types of dinosaurs. They stuck well and were easy enough to peel that the children could do it without too much assistance.

Quantity and quality for the price was great! Stickers are not always cheap and when they are... their probably cheap. LOL> these did the trick and peel off pretty easy. My little guy loves them. He put a ton on his door (not mom approved) and they came off just fine - no residue left behind! If you have ever had a stuck sticker... you know what I am talking about.
