Customer Reviews

This book is supposed to have Thousands of Miles Worth of Hands-On Games and Activities, and yet it is only 18 pages long. This book'll last you for less than 100 miles before you get bored of it, I recommend Kids Travel instead.

the contents of this book WILL entertain kids as old as 80 !however the darn pages keep falling off the spiral binder. the pages are made of thick paper (wonderful) but with constant adjustment of the wire binding, this makes it difficult to turn the pages easily. Have resorted to taking it apart and getting o-rings to keep everything intact. If you can make it through this frustration you will enjoy. By the way... this is the second one I have purchased in the past 8 years.

I like the book a lot! All the games they have in there are really fun, but can get boring after awhile. They should've put in more games, or at least make the games a little more interesting. All in all it's a well designed book, sturdy, durable and all the pieces are well contained!

Its one of my favorite books. It gives me hours of interactive entertainment. Stories,board games,contests,logic, and more. I think kids aged 7-12 would enjoy this
