Chess Camp: Two Move Checkmates, Vol 5

Synopsis

Chess Camp is a new training system for beginning chessplayers, and for the parents and coaches who teach them. Starting with simple problems to illustrate key concepts, and then progressing to more complex positions, the student will learn by doing, methodically integrating new information with previous knowledge while building effective thinking habits at the board.

Customer Reviews

I've still working on some of these checkmates - - - If for nothing else but review. But for kids...absolutely great.

After I reviewed this book, I gave it to a 9-year-old boy whose dad was bringing him to the chess club. I understand that they are using it to learn the game.
